What is YLED?

YLED is an award winning, innovative and inspirational youth skills and entrepreneurship development initiative that aims to positively impact participants' future academic, social, entrepreneurial and career paths. We are non-profit organisation advocating the life and entrepreneurship development of young people.

Committed to Youth Skills Development

In today's fast changing, global economy, educators and employees alike recognise that traditional education often falls short of providing young people with the basic life skills they need to succeed – in school, their communities and future work places.

Greater investment in such programs will help narrow the growing gap between the supply of and demand for skilled workers, while helping to bridge the digital divide between developed and underdeveloped areas, municipalities and provinces of our country.

Organisations, government departments and municipalities that are conscious of the needs of the country that are aligned to ASGISA, youth development and Social Corporate responsibility will benefit their organisations, the community and their employees.

We are hoping and expecting that our life skills and Entrepreneurship Development program will positively impact participants' future academic, entrepreneurial and career paths.
